CONFESSIONS OF A LAS VEGAS HAIRSTYLIST
MIMI MILLER

To maintain a spiritual center never losing who she is with all the chaos and drama around her is as miraculous

“From Page 1 you will be wrapped in a social experience so real, You will begin to think your own life is Fiction...”

as the eye of the hurricane. Her take no prisoners approach approach to having her say is both heartbreaking and compelling. Her talent as a Master Hairstylist took her to places I am sure she never thought she would see or believe to be and managed to somehow elevate her and those whose lives she touches with her hands and heart to a hopeful better place. This a must read for every hairstylist and their clients. Mimi's for real.

AUTHOR BIOGRAPHY

In the world of the new American writer there is no clearer new voice than Mimi Miller. She talks in the language of the listener, with a voice they understand and it's real. She has lived it and is telling her story holding nothing back.

MIMI MILLER CONFESSIONS OF A LAS VEGAS HAIRSTYLIST

Las Vegas Baby! I'm takin' Sin City here. 24 hour, 7 day a week entertainment. The place where tourist visit from all over the World go to get wild and loose their freakin' minds!

Have you ever wondered what it's really like to live there?

In Confessions of a Las Vegas hair stylist, You will get to know an upper middle class society that's fundamentally intrinsic to the fabric of our culture. Locals who live on the edge but still contribute to the economic growth stimulus of our country. These real life stories are about people who lead alternative lifestyles, and the unique ways they make their alternative income.

New to Town is Mimi Miller, a young single mother of three children who moved to escape Detroit's low income housing and the onset of it's recession. She believed it to be a great place to raise her kids. She saw it as the land of opportunity.

Quickly learning the hustle game, she becomes one of the most sought after hair extension stylist to some of the biggest Stars in Vegas who all compete to have their special services done with her.

Of course when you live in a place called "Sin City, you can definitely expect to run into the most uncommon situations and circumstances.

In this auto-biographical dramedey, Mimi looks back over her experiences to make sense of the clientele she has attracted as her source of bread and butter to feed her kids.

She runs into plenty of action and reveals the beauty supply drama, hair weave pullin' cat fights, marijuana smokin' stylist who do your hair better high than sober and how some housewives get away with cheating on their rich Husband's for a sexier side-kick. It's all about the Style!

Peep out the double lives of Pimps and Hoe's on the stroll, who live in the Suburbs (maybe next to you), their secret language of the streets, the human trafficking game and how they make their money off of Corporate America.

You'll get to know up and coming Porn Stars and the deep dark politics of the new mafia "The Hair Manufacturing Industry" it's worse than Politics.

So beware this book is not for the children... Keep the church ladies away 'cause they will pass out! YOU...may even need counseling after this, so be prepared. "Confessions of a Las Vegas Hair Stylist" get's in your face and make you think, is this issh real?

Yes it's crucial.. Mimi is not playin' and neither are the people in this book! Outrageous as it is, You will hate to love some of these characters. But do not sleep on the game.. We all need a little more awareness out here. Do you really know who lives next door to you? You wanna read this book. Order your copy today and be smarter tomorrow.

SYNOPSIS

Mimi Miller's 1st Book – Available online and in bookstores everywhere

The cold style of “Confessions of a Las Vegas Hair Stylist” is deliberate and so is the street grammar. Reminiscent of classics like Sister Souljah’s “The Coldest Winter Ever”, Mimi’s Miller’s “in your face” tone evokes raw human emotion as it shakes your perception of who is the Middle Class. The life and style of the real characters in this book are vividly depicted in their daily struggles to attain wealth, prestige, and accomplishment in a world that few would respect as the American Dream. The protagonist, Mimi Miller is a single parent who finds her own life filled with contradictions trying to raise three normal children as much as she finds it challenging to keep the lines drawn between friendship, spiritual growth and professionalism. Her clients daily exploits draws this Hair Stylist into transactions endemic to the culture of Las Vegas.

Confessions of a Las Vegas Hair Stylist – you will meet....

Mimi Miller, the most sought after Hair Extension Stylist in Las Vegas offers more than your usual private room services at the Upscale Salons she works in.

Nina, a proud hooker with platinum blonde hair and a tight body that works the streets of Las Vegas. She lives in a world filled with abuse, rape and danger but manages to hold her head up high and make sense of her world by meeting her quota of five thousand dollars a week.

Suga, the Female Pimp, a Lesbian with a wife she worships and a young daughter to raise. She tries to maintain a family environment in the best way she knows how while operating a business that is predominately ruled by men.

Maya, a sexy housewife from the Philippines who has everything; a husband with a Fortune 500 company, a nanny who takes care of their son, housekeepers who takes care of their estate and a boyfriend who takes care of what she really needs.

Jon Jon, the Porn Star, well known in Vegas for his dark chocolate sexy slim body, blue contacts (I repeat: blue contacts) and a hair weave braided to his shoulders. You can find him dancing at all the hottest clubs with the hottest women around, even though he’s not cute, all the ladies love him.

The Sexy Jonson, a female hustler who learned the trade from her mother. Makes a pretty good living stealing from men she meets on the Vegas Strip.

Slim, a preacher’s kid from the south who learns how to be a pimp from a white girl who taught him everything, he becomes successful at it traveling to different states. He now has a human trafficking empire.

Trey, a handsome GQ dressin, fly, Ferrari-drivin’ Korean dude built like Brue Lee. He knows all the strippers, workin’ girls and smokin’ hot cocktail waitresses. They come to his Beauty Supply minutes from Strip on the regular because he knows how to treat lady.

Baby, the college girl by day Stripper by night who finds herself in the middle of everyone else’s drama to save them but doesn’t know how to save herself.

And Many Others...
